First of all, I would like to thank my fellow editor, Silvia Montiglio, for her continual collaboration and friendly support in producing and preparing this volume. Both editors would like to thank Maaïke Zimmerman for preparing the index of the volume with diligence and professional meticulousness. A special word of gratitude is also due to the contributors, who patiently and accurately revised and improved their Lisbon ICAN papers for publication. I would also like to thank Roelf Barkhuis once more for his unfailing support and professional commitment. We are also indebted to Sociedade Portuguesa de Autores particularly to Ms. Ana Rita Duarte and Ms. Florbela Januário) and to its Dutch sister organization (Pictoright) for granting us permission to reproduce Almada Negreiros' stained glass, 'Eros e Psique'. We owe Dr. Cátia Mourão, curator of the Museum, and Ms. Manuela Magalhães, curator of the Arquivo Histórico-Parlamentar of the Assembleia da República, thanks for providing us with a high resolution image of the stained glass. I extend my gratitude to David Konstan, for his kind revision of the English style of the Introduction. Finally, Ms. Nynke Tiekstra deserves also a special mention for her fine work in designing the book's front cover.
